

Cal Lutheran

Coach Shoup claims of his defensive unit, "One thing for sure this unit is tough. They are big in heart and they are a proud group. So it's going to be hard for someone to roll over us." This team has some pretty good defensive statistics but the best one is that no team has scored against the "Kingsmen" defense via a run. Thus far they have given up an average of 63.5 yds. running and 100.5 yds. passing.

Offensively the "Kingsmen" are not great, "they just seem to get the job done." Offensive standouts are #'s; 29 Jetter, 22 Steuch, and guard #67 Dillon, who they believe is the best lineman in the area.

The "Kingsmen" were 9-1 last year and are 6-0 this season for a total of 14 straight victories. This game means a lot to both teams, and we feel that for a victory we must "want it" more than they do. We must maintain our poise at all times. A repetition of our 169 yds. in penalties could be disasterous.

These people believe that they are headed for a bowl game with their #11 NAIA Ranking.

DEF PERS

- 80-Rich Kelly, 6'0, 190 lb. right end. Comes hard on pass rush and sweeps. Likes to stay on the outside for containment. We should roll him up!
- 79-Gary Branham, 6'3, 239 lb. right tackle. Hard hitter with good penetration on runs and passes.
- 68-Jim Bauer, 5'10, 225 lb. middle guard. Very strong lineman. Makes good gap moves. Appears to read and react most of the time.
- 75-Jim Wright, 5'10, 215 lb. left tackle. Doesn't penetrate as well as other tackle does a good job on pursuit and pass rush.
- 87-Ted Masters, 6'2, 190 lb. left end. Comes in hard and fast but stands up to meet blockers. Should roll him up. Has bad knee.
- 51-Sam Cvijanovich, 6'1, 183 lb. right linebacker. Stronger of the outside linebacker. Plays close to the line a lot and is in eagle adjustment some of the time. Good on covering the run and screen.
- 83-Gary Echels, 6'1, 185 lb. left linebacker. Plays further back than #51 and is better on pass coverage. Weaker on the run.
- 33-Rich Andrade, 5'10, 176 lb. middle linebacker. Very good tackler (has led the ~~xx~~ team in tackles last year) and pursuer. Doesn't come across much on stunts.
- 35-Arnold Allen, 5'10, 176 lb. right halfback. Comes up fast on sweeps. Fair on pass coverage. A real hot dog temperament! Don't let his lack of poise get you out of this game.
- 13-Bob Wilkins, 6'2, 190 lb. left halfback. Has had 2 touchdown passes on him this year. We should be able to work on him. He comes up slower than #35 on sweeps.
- 84-John Bossard, 6'1, 190 lb safety. Good speed and covers well.

- 14-Al Jones, 6'1, 200lb. quarterback. Throws to 29, 25 and 88 who are good receivers. Good at short and long passes. Leads as blocker on some sweeps. Throws screen pass to 24 or 37 in the flat.
- 24-Joe Strouch, 5'10, 190lb. halfback who is their best runner and gained 1000 yards last year. Runs screen pass and dives as well as sweeps. Must stop this runner.
- 29-Brian Jeter, 6'2, 188lb. slotback. Runs #46 trap and slot-back option. Good pass receiver with good hands. Does not like to run head-on into tacklers so we should stick him early. Cracks back on some sweeps. Excellent speed.
- 37-Erwin Eudenburg, 6'2, 210lb. fullback. Strong runner up the middle, especially over right guard. Runs screen pass.
- 25-Bill Burties, 6'1, 180lb. split end. Good receiver with good hands and quick speed. Runs good patterns.
- 70-Bruce Carlson, 6'0, 210lb. split tackle. Very consistent blocker who makes few mental mistakes. Strong on pass blocking and screen.
- 67-John Dillo, 6'0, 218lb. ~~split~~ guard. Strongest lineman. He is being pushed by his coaches for All-District. Aggressive and consistent. Strong on pass blocking and straight ahead blocking.
- 55-Gary McGinnis, 6'0, 210lb. center. Good pass protector. Very consistent with few mental mistakes.
- 63-Tim Van Barkirk, 5'9, 192lb. tight guard. Good blocker but weaker of the guards and tackles. #68, Jim Bauer may alternate to bring in a play or substitute.
- 74-Carl Clark, 6'2, 220lb. tight tackle. Good blocker. Aggressive and consistent.
- 88-Chris Elkins, 6'2, 216lb. tight end. Good receiver with good hands and speed.
