 GEORGE BUEHLER, WHITTIER END, SELECTED TOP
 PLAYER IN SO. CAL. "AAAA" FOOTBALL FOR 1964

FOR RELEASE: WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, JANUARY 6TH and Thursday a.m.

* * * DO NOT RELEASE PRIOR TO WEDNESDAY, JAN. 6TH...p.m.

George Buehler, Whittier High School's massive tight end who led coach Vic Lopez' Cardinals to a final CIF playoff victory over Loyola 21-14 and in the doing snapped a Cub 35-game win streak, the longest ever in CIF grid play, was acclaimed "AAAA" Player of the Year by members of the Helms Foundation's All-Southern California Board of Athletics for the 1964 season. Selection of Buehler and three CIF "AAAA" Division teams was made at the 28th annual selection meeting of prep writers from throughout Southern California at Helms Hall in Los Angeles.

Buehler and two teammates -- quarterback Tim Walker and tackle Tom Seminoff -- were named on the CIF honor teams for 1964, as Whittier made it through a tough playoff schedule following a Pacific League tie with Alhambra. In the playoffs, Whittier defeated Pasadena (13-13 on first downs), Santa Ana Valley (14-7), Long Beach Poly (27-12) and the Loyola Cubs (21-14).

At 6-feet, two inches and 235 pounds, Buehler is among the strongest players to have performed in prep grid annals in the Southland. He was 1963 heavyweight wrestling champ in CIF ranks. He put the shot over 60 feet in track. He is extremely aggressive and from his linebacking position on defense has an amazing ability to diagnose plays. Coach Lopez informs that the Poly coaching staff -- the Cards defeated them 27-12 -- feels that Buehler will be another Mike Ditka.

For having been named CIF "AAAA" Division Player of the Year for 1964, George Buehler, along with players named for first, second, and third team honors, will be honored at the 28th annual All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program to be held at Helms Hall on Saturday morning, January 16, at 10:30 a.m. Players, coaches and dignitaries from the football scene will be in attendance.

Loyola's Mike Bergdahl, Buehler and Poly's Gene Washington are the only repeaters from last year's team. Santa Ana Valley, Sunset League co-champs and first round victor over Ramona, 35-7, before bumping into Whittier (lost 14-7), placed three performers on the squad. Woody Deckard, Valley's fine QB and guard Dale Moeding were named to the first team, while end Jim Champion was a third-team selection.

Long Beach Poly's fabulous duo of Gene Washington and Al Nichols accounted for over 3,000 yards in total offense for the Jack-rabbits in 1964. Washington (706 rush and 887 pass) and Nichols (1596 rush and eclipsing Willie Brown's marks) managed 3,189 yards between them.

Twenty-six CIF "AAAA" Division schools are represented on the 1964 all-star teams. All players selected are seniors. Whittier coach Vic Lopez will receive a special silver tumbler award recognizing him for his coaching efforts in 1964.

VOIT RUBBER COMPANY TO PRESENT HONORED PLAYERS WITH FOOTBALLS

As it has so kindly done over the past 15 years, AMF-Voit Rubber Company of Los Angeles will have a special Voit Football award for each player named to the CIF "AAAA" Division teams for 1964. Loyd Tutor and Mell Barton, who have participated in honoring the Southland's top prep footballers during these years, will be on hand at Helms Hall to make the presentations.

This marks the 28th year that Helms Athletic Foundation, through All-Southern California Board of Athletics, has honored the Southland's finest gridiron performers from our high schools. Honored players receive scroll awards, beautifully framed, while players of the year and CIF title-winning coaches receive special medal and tumbler awards.

This year's awards program will be held at Helms Hall on Saturday morning, January 16th, at 10:30 a.m.

TERRY NEWLIN (ST. FRANCIS), STEVE PRICE (COACHELLA), & BRIAN KILPATRICK (RIM OF WORLD) WIN TOP CIF PLAYER HONORS FOR 1964

FOR RELEASE THURSDAY AFTERNOON, JANUARY 7th and Friday a.m.

Terry Newlin who helped St. Francis to the CIF "AAA" Division title in 1964 was proclaimed Player of the Year in "AAA-AA" grid play as members of Helms All-Southern California Board of Football met at Helms Hall to make their annual football team selections. The Helms Board, following a pattern set last year, named four "small-school" teams, two in "AAA-AA" and two in "A-Small School" categories.

Steve Price and Brian Kilpatrick, who led Coachella and Rim of the World to "A" and "Small-School" CIF titles respectively, were accorded "Co-Player of the Year" honors for their respective division.

Newlin, who was named the top offensive back in Santa Fe League play was one of three St. Francis performers to be named to the 1964 first team. Teammates Dennis Flagg (QB) and center George Contreras were the others honored. The Knights, defending "AAA" champs whipped Garden Grove (34-32), Pomona Catholic (21-14), Santa Maria (20-12) and Claremont (14-0) in the finals.

Fullback Steve Price of Coachella, who gained 1,295 yards in total offense this year and 1,400 last, led his Arab teammates to the "A" Division crown with wins over Hemet (25-14), Laguna (20-19) and Mission of San Luis Obispo (28-6) in the finals.

Rim of the World's Brian Kilpatrick, one of two repeaters on the "A-Small School" Team, accounted for 1,605 in total offense, 1,394 of it passing. Brian threw for 16 TDs, completing 79 of 142 throws.

Kilpatrick directed Rim of the World to the Arrowhead League crown in 1964 and wins over Mountain Empire (48-12), Needles (47-21) and Valley Christian (13-7) in the finals. Guard Bob Steele of Rim was named to the all-star second team.

Thousand Oaks, "AA" finalist losing to San Marino 21-13, placed three players on the "AAA-AA" teams along with St. Francis. Halfbacks Ron Romans and Jim Russell were first-team picks, while tackle John Hammond was named to the second team. "AA" champion San Marino placed only end John Kinard on the first team.

Some 39 Southland high schools are represented on the two division teams, while only two players -- Brian Kilpatrick and Marv Paolini of Mission, SLO -- are back from last year's honor teams.

Players of the Year for 1964, coaches of CIF title teams -- Whittier's Vic Lopez, St. Francis' Jack Friedman, San Marino's Robert Cunz, Coachella's Jerry Usher and Rim of the World's Edward Eaton -- and honored players in all divisions will receive their awards at the 28th annual Football Awards Program of the Helms Board at Helms Hall on Saturday morning, January 16th at 10:30 a.m.

At this time scroll, medal and silver tumbler awards will be made by All-Southern California Board of Athletics. Voit Rubber Company of Los Angeles, as it has done for many years past, will present footballs to the honored players.

Players of the Year in the smaller enrollment divisions of the C.I.F. have been made since 1951. Players of the Year as selected by the Helms Board follow:

GARDENA'S STEVE SOGGE WINS PLAYER OF YEAR ACCLAIM IN LOS ANGELES FOOTBALL FOR 1964

FOR RELEASE: TUESDAY, JANUARY 5, 1965 and after
 DO NOT RELEASE PRIOR TO JAN. 5, 1965.

Steve Sogge, perhaps the finest athlete in Gardena High School history and the first and only City Player of the Year the Mohicans have had since the illustrious Don Bahrman cavorted on the grid back in 1948, was acclaimed a unanimous choice as 1964 Los Angeles City Football Player of the Year, as members of the Helms Hall prep board met at Helms Hall to make their annual high school gridiron selections.

Sogge led his Gardena team to the Los Angeles City title this past season with wins over Van Nuys (50-14), Reseda (35-14) and Los Angeles' Romans in the finale (12-12). In the City finals, the winner was decided on a special "formula" having to do with penetration of the opponent's 20 yard line and first downs made within the 20. Termed the "Costello" system, it was used for the first time in 1964.

The remarkable Steve Sogge, who graduates in February and is reportedly headed for USC, had as great a season as any City performer has ever experienced in 1964. In five league and three playoff game performances, Sogge completed 141 of 227 passes for 2,631 yards and 22 touchdowns, the latter a new City record. Steve added 10 TDs from scrimmage and 20 points in conversion efforts, to account for 212 points during the full season.

The Mohicans were the highest scoring team in the City for the past season, scoring 219 points in five games (44-point average) and added 97 in the playoffs for an eight-game scoring binge of 316 and a phenomenal 40-point average. In two games in 1964, Sogge threw for five TDs. Against Westchester in a practice game, Steve completed 23 of 34 passes for 351 yards and five TDs; against Van Nuys in the first City playoff game he completed nine of 18 for 256 yards and five TDs. Steve matched his greatest pass-yardage output against Reseda in the second playoff round, when he hit 14 of 21 for 351 yards and three TDs.

For having been named the Los Angeles City Player of the Year for 1964, Steve Sogge will be honored at the 28th annual All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program to be held at Helms Hall on Saturday morning, January 16th at 10:30 a.m. All players chosen for Los Angeles City Team honors will be invited to be on hand to receive their scroll awards and to see Sogge receive a special Helms medallion as the City's top performer. His coach Stan Smith also will be honored.

Twenty City high schools find themselves represented on this year's All-Los Angeles City Team. Gardena's high-flying Mohicans landed three players on the first team as end John Paavola and guard Jeff Lancaster joined player of the year Sogge. Runner-up Los Angeles is represented by two players, guard Hal Griffin and junior back Charles Moch.

Al Proctor, center from Fremont, and Steve Sogge find themselves on the first team for the second year. Van Nuys' Rick Purdy moved up from last season's second team, while Gardena's Jim Lewis was again placed on the second squad. Birmingham's Craig Schusterick was a third team selection for a second year.

Gil Rozadilla, coach of Southern League champion Manual Arts, calls his ace tackle Willard Scott, "Outstanding in all phases of the Game", while opposing Southern League mentor Jim Pendleton of L.A. High calls the 6-foot, one-inch, 228-pound lineman, "The best and strongest lineman I have seen in years."

This was enough recommendation for the Helms prep board of selection to name Scott the Southern League's top performer for 1964. The Board saw fit to name only two manual players to the all-league team, although five of coach Rozadilla's boys made the second team. Los Angeles mathematically tied Manual in league play, 4-1, and placed five players on the first team, with three on the second.

Showing the league's strength, Manual and Los Angeles met in the semi-final playoff round, with the Romans winning, 14-7. L.A. had defeated Eagle Rock 40-13 in the first playoff round, while Manual had disposed of Roosevelt, 40-20.

All-League selections have been made by Helms' City Board of Athletics since 1937, with scroll awards going to the honored players.

Mike Rhodes, Reseda High's ace quarterback, three-year letterman and captain, was acclaimed league Player of the Year by members of Helms All-Los Angeles Board of Athletics, when the selection body met last week at Helms Hall to make its annual grid selections.

Reseda, like City Champion Gardena, compiled a perfect record in league play (6-0), defeated Venice 42-20 in the first playoff round and then fell before Gardena, 35-14. Four Reseda players were named to the league team, while co-runners-up Birmingham and Taft landed three team members. Remaining teams in order of league finish were Granada Hills (3-2-1), Canoga Park (2-3-1), Cleveland (1-5-0) and Chatsworth (0-6-0).

Mike Rhodes, a 5-foot, 8-inch, 165-pound passing QB, completed 43 of 88 passes for 11 touchdowns during league play. He was the spearhead of coach Roy Jae's attack, which accounted for 127 points against an opposition's 30.

All-league players receive a special scroll award from the Helms selection Board, recognizing them for their grid accomplishments over the 1964 season. These awards have been made since 1937.

To the surprise of absolutely no one, Gardena's amazing field general Steve Sogge was acclaimed a repeat Marine League Player of the Year for 1964. Sogge directed his team to the L.A. City title after helping win the Marine League crown with a perfect 5-0 record. For 8 practice and regular-season games, Sogge completed 103 of 162 passes for 1778 yards and 20 TDs. He ran for an additional 359 yards.

Sogge was third high scorer in City play with 88 points. The Mohicans scored 219 points (high in the City) against 40 for the opposition. Coach Stan Smith's Gardenans added 97 points in three play-off encounters -- 50-14 over Van Nuys; 35-14 over Reseda; and 12-12 in the City finale against Los Angeles -- to make the Mohicans one of the highest scoring aggregations in City history.

Reflecting Gardena's complete domination in the Marine, eight Mohicans were named to the first team. Selections were made by Helms All-Los Angeles City Board composed of Ralph Alexander, Mannie Pineda, Wayne Wilson, Jeff Prugh, Willis Arrington and Van Barbieri. As in past years, All-League selectees will receive scroll awards from All-Los Angeles City Board of Athletics.

Coach Ray McLean's Eastern League Champion Roosevelt High School placed three performers on the All-League first team, including Player of the Year Robert Peters, as Helms All-Los Angeles City Board of Football met at Helms Hall last week to make its annual grid selections.

Peters, a 5-foot, 10-inch, 157-pound halfback, accounted for over 800 yards in total offense in five league games, as his team compiled a 4-0-1 record. Bell High School, which finished a half-step back of Roosevelt at 4-1-0, placed four performers on the first league team.

Teams in order of league finish behind Roosevelt and Bell were, Huntington Park (2-2-1), South Gate (2-3-0), Garfield (1-4-0) and Wilson (1-4-0). This marks the third season that Bell's outstanding guard Tom Woodson has received league recognition. He was a second-team choice both in 1962 and 1963. Roosevelt lost to Manual 40-20 in City Playoff competition.

Selected by Helms All-Los Angeles Board of Athletics, composed of metropolitan prep writers, boys named for league honors will receive special scroll awards recognizing their achievements.

Big Ed Mitchell, 6-foot, 205-pound quarterback from Fairfax High School and the City's top scorer (112 points in six games) was a unanimous Player of the Year selection in the Western League for 1964, following vote by All-Los Angeles City Board of Athletics, which held its annual meeting at Helms Hall last week.

Coach Harry Frum calls Mitchell, "An outstanding runner and passer and team leader." Ed will receive his Player of the Year medal award at the 28th annual Helms awards program to be held at Helms Hall on Saturday morning, January 16th at 10:30 a.m. Only All-City and All-CIF team selections will be presented their awards at Helms Hall, the league selectees receiving their scrolls at their respective schools.

In an always tight Western League race Venice was 1964 champion with 5-0-1, followed by Westchester 5-1-0, Fairfax 4-2-0, University 3-3-0, Hamilton 1-4-1, Palisades 1-5-0 and Hollywood 1-5-0.

Board Members making the annual All-League picks are Ralph Alexander (Herald-Examiner), Mannie Pineda (Citizen News), Jeff Prugh (LA Times), Willis Arrington (Huntington Park Signal) Wayne Wilson (Van Nuys News) and Van Barbieri (San Pedro News-Pilot). All-Los Angeles City league selections have been made since 1937.

East-Valley League champion Van Nuys placed four performers on the All-League first team, including Player of the Year Rick Purdy, as Helms Athletic Foundation's All-Los Angeles City Board of Football met at Helms Hall last week to make its annual grid selections.

One of the Southland's largest quarterbacks at 6'2" and 210 pounds, Purdy led Van Nuys to a 5-1 league season, which mathematically tied them with Monroe for the crown. Having defeated Monroe in league play, Van Nuys was accorded the title. Monroe placed five players on the first team.

Behind Van Nuys and Monroe, in order of league finish, came San Fernando (4-2-0), Sylmar (3-3-0), Grant (3-3-0), Poly (1-5-0) and North Hollywood (0-6-0)

Selections of Los Angeles' all-league teams are made by Board members Ralph Alexander, Mannie Pineda, Wayne Wilson, Jeff Prugh, Willis Arrington, and Van Barbieri. All-League players, both first and second team, receive special scroll awards as they have since 1937.
